ATCO ENERGY SOLUTIONS PARTNERS WITH SIMPCW FIRST NATION IN B.C.
Will work together to pursue projects within traditional lands

CALGARY, Alberta – ATCO Energy Solutions announced today that it has signed a Relationship Agreement with the Simpcw First Nation, in the North Thompson and Robson Valley region of B.C. that will see the two parties jointly pursue a number of sustainable business opportunities related to energy infrastructure development.

“We look forward to working with the Simpcw on several projects within their territory,” said Patrick Creaghan, President, ATCO Energy Solutions. “We are confident that ATCO Energy Solutions’ expertise in non-regulated energy infrastructure will contribute to creating a mutually successful partnership.”

This agreement builds on ATCO’s more than 30-year history of partnering with Indigenous communities and ATCO Energy Solutions will draw upon the existing expertise of ATCO’s various business lines in the areas of electricity infrastructure, power generation, workforce accommodation and pipeline solutions.

By partnering with ATCO, the Simpcw will be able to further its strategic goal of creating a strong future for its members.

“Together with ATCO, we are encouraged by the opportunities that our people will benefit from as energy projects are developed within our territory,” said Chief Rita Matthew, Simpcw First Nation. “This agreement is designed to establish and foster a positive working relationship based on mutual trust, respect and common interests.”

ATCO Energy Solutions builds, owns and operates non-regulated energy and water-related infrastructure.
